JUST CitRUX: Works by ATYL

March 2 - 29, 2007

Woman Made Gallery is pleased to present the works of ATYL from March 2nd until the 29th.

Pop culture, representations of women and Utopic fantasy coalesce in the work of ATYL. Employing a color palette reminiscent of your favorite jolly rancher, ATYL creates computer generated images that reference the stylistic conventions of popular video games. Her works include references to the mundane, sexuality, intimacy, and the urban environment.

ATYL received her B.F.A. from the School of the Art Institute of Chicago. She continues pursuing her art, while also working as an attorney. In her statement she comments: "I challenge the ideals of justice, empowerment and faith. In JUST CitRUX, I re-fashion Genesis into a world where God is a woman and Law is the paramount. Is there ethics in Justice? Is love humanity's Holy Grail?" These are some of the questions ATYL asks in her work.

Please visit Woman Made Gallery and witness this striking presentation of avant-garde anime-style images. An opening reception will be held on March 2nd from 6 until 9 p.m. and works will be on display until March 29th.
