Ode to Tools

A Solo Exhibition by Ursula Kammer-Fox

October 12 – November 8, 2007

Woman Made Gallery is pleased to announce the opening of "Ode to Tools," a solo exhibition featuring the work of Ursula Kammer-Fox. Born in Germany, Kammer-Fox is based in California. She creates assemblages that evoke various political and societal issues. Kammer-Fox explains, "With the body of work in this show, I sometimes feature tools as a political or aesthetic statement—often just to have fun, but always to thank the people who invent tools, build tools, and use tools to fix broken worlds."

With her mixed media assemblage, Rulers, Kammer-Fox reinvents object by juxtaposing several rulers of various size and condition. For Kammer-Fox, the more dents and wear on a tool, the more aesthetically interesting the object. Concurrently with Kammer-Fox's solo show, there will be a group show "In Praise of Physical Labor," juried by the artist. Please join us for the opening reception on October 12th from 6 to 9 p.m.
