Woman Made Gallery is pleased to announce the opening of a solo exhibition “Perfections: The Allure of Advertising” with mixed media work by Louise Pappageorge.

Louise Pappageorge’s work reflects our daily conscious and perfunctory viewing of billboards, signage and magazine advertising. Working with text and imagery culled from fashion magazines and other periodicals her work examines and scrutinizes the covert, subliminal messages imbedded in the media. She explores ideas and values of beauty and perfection, consumption and objectification.

Her self-published book “TINA” will also be on display. Ms. Pappageorge is a native of Chicago and a graduate of the School of the Art Institute, Chicago. Her work is included in the Collection of the City of Chicago and the Abstract Mind Mural.

To view more of her work visit www.louisepappageorge.com

Please join us at the opening reception on June 29 from 6 until 9pm. Works are up through July 26, 2007.
