April 10, 2007 – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Woman Made Gallery Benefit Auction April 21

An eclectic evening of art, food and fun

CHICAGO – Woman Made Gallery is pleased to host its annual Benefit Auction from 6:30 to 10:00 p.m. on Saturday, April 21, in the lively, creative atmosphere of Catalyst Ranch, 656 W. Randolph Street, Chicago.

The gallery's major yearly fundraiser, the Benefit Auction features both live and silent auctions offering a large variety of arts and crafts items as well as gift certificates and services. This year there also will be a wine bar and delicious appetizers provided by "Amazing Edibles."

The auction will feature paintings, photographs, pottery, sculpture, jewelry, and much more, including artwork by ATYL, Sarah Beitler, Pamela Callahan, YaYa Chou, Linda Cordner, Phyllis Edelman, Fujiko Isomura and Sarah Kargol. Among numerous other treasures are a garment by Anne Elizabeth, a painting by Luis Fernando Uribe and a beautiful quilt by Beth Ann St. George titled "Shield of Faith."

Admission tickets are $65 prepaid or $75 at the door with all proceeds benefiting Woman Made Gallery and its programs.

For more details on the event, phone the Gallery at 312-738-0400 or e-mail gallery@womanmade.org. To view select donations or order tickets online, visit www.womanmade.org/auctions.html. Directions and parking information can be found at www.catalystranch.com/maps.html.

About Woman Made Gallery

Woman Made Gallery is a non-profit organization that supports and cultivates the diverse contributions of women artists through exhibitions, educational programs and community outreach. Since 1992, WMG has mounted more than 250 exhibitions that featured the work of over 5,000 women artists. Furthering its mission is the Gallery's comprehensive website, an online registry, artist development workshops and annual "Her Mark" datebook publication. Woman Made Gallery is located at 685 N. Milwaukee Ave., Chicago IL 60622.
