Jessie Lijiaqi: When We Look Into Each Other's Eye (2023) —Installation

CHICAGO—Woman Made Gallery (WMG) is to present Digital Alchemy: Transforming Pixels into Emotions, a virtual group exhibition with work by nineteen artists. Curated by Willea Zwey, this exhibition focuses on the emotional impact of digital art. In their work, the artists experiment with digital tools to create narratives that evoke specific feelings and sensations.

The show features multimedia installations, audiovisual experiences, and emotionally immersive digital artworks. In alignment with the theme of the exhibition, the juror was keen to see how artists leverage digital tools to enrich the narratives in their artworks.
